

Wolke

Into breathless sleep

Shadows and light

Still I wak, the excuse for life,
silent wanderer,
deaf and blind.
Remembrance, oblivion, what's this life for?

The memory's gone

Thoms in the eyes,
what is this life?
I need to find,
why I'm still blind

All friends, shadows and dust.
Who will save me from myself?
This hell,
I built inside,
took control,
I wasted this life...

In the deepest spheres of my mind, the shadows conquered - the light

Thoms in the eyes,
what is this life?
I need to find,
why I'm alive

Light my way out these shadow grounds, I can not stand what I've found

In the deepest spheres of my mind,
I'm the keeper of eternal, awful night.

Immortalized

Waking as a part of the world machine See your life, see your fate as preproduced scenes Simply said, without hope, nothing is divine Just a universe following equations of time

[Chorus]

See, the timeless growing seed Captured eternity
On human souls it feeds On, a struggle to survive to spread and multiply Racing through the skies, immortalized

Just a little piece in the bigger frame, for the clockwork of life, we're all the same Electron grandfather catches on you Holds his grip on your life until you're through

[Chorus]

So we all are a part of the master plan that no god has ever written it recombines itself with every explosion of the universe of our universe

[Chorus]

Flames of hatred

I suffered for all your sins, I died a thousand deaths, to keep the secrets within,
All these things never told became the lie,
My life burned down to ashes

[Chorus]

All these years a bad dream or a memory, I can't remember, I won't remember, no

Am I dead or still alive?
Is it really worth to fight?
Is this still my life?
Or have I already died?

The will to be is fading away,
In flames of hatred, I burned down to nothing What you've done, never taken back, Can't you see, father you keep killing me

[Chorus]

Built to fail

When the bright stars, shine above black waters, when the air is filled with silence, and the earth lies calm, My mind is wild and free, like an eagle in the sky, nowhere else will I find, a place to heal from the wounds of time.

[Chorus]

Illuminate the soul to see,
What breathes life into me,
All your kingdoms won't prevail, dark cities are built to fail...

Because all beauty fades, by the hands of men, grey demons touch the sky, where once life dwelled, no rest for the soul, in a world of neonlight, dark monuments enshrined, all that was since the beginning of time.

[Chorus]

It ain't too late to turn around, from mistakes we've made, just listen to the sound, of earth's desperate cry, without a mother each child must die.

[Chorus]

Son of darkness

I lied to myself for so long Pretended I could make it alone Now I realize, I was wrong Became a wanderer without home Scratch the surface, you will see An empty shell's all that's left of me And as the seasons are passing by Sure I know I live to die

And I fear the light

[Chorus]

Son of darkness - I got insane Son of darkness - no clearing rain Son of darkness - I feel the pain
Son of darkness - forever my name

No salvation but endless torture Life sucked the blood out of me Trapped in the past without future Existence's a morbid symphony Endless fears inside my head My body feels like long time dead
And all the hope is out of sight I'm my own deadly parasite

[Chorus]

When darkness rises I become alive When light appears I try to hide My existence has been in vain
Son of darkness forever my name

A world enslaved

Mankind the plague of terra firma yet supreme above all that's breathing...

A world enslaved,
by this bastard race
A planet that dies,
by feeding our lives

[Chorus]

Release the world from it's chains Mankind shall perish and die, in flames!

A world enslaved,
by this bastard race
Dark aeons arise, to take our lives.

[Chorus]

Forever slave to manufactured lives,
A machine made mind became our silent guide

A world enslaved,
by this bastard race
A planet that dies
by feeding our lives.

Lonely road

From the time of tanks and aircrafts
To the era of bones and stone A blinding fog fences our view Low lie the clouds of our concerns

[Chorus]

Lonely road, path of mine Lonely road, through empty time
Lonely road, path of mine
Lonely road, lead me back to light

The wind, carrying to me
A familiar melody
Of tunes that sound so bright Lead me gently further

Can you break my train of thinking Can you sense the feelings mine
The cause for history still repeating Inherent ego of our kind

[Chorus]

The wind, carrying to me
A familiar melody
Of tunes that sound so bright
Lead me gently through this night

To overcome the limits
That mark this race
The signs are set
The minds aren't yet
